12:00 – 12:45 p.m.

Ohio Statehouse West Plaza

Eleven years ago we entered into a new millennium. Since January 2000, 64,197 pre-born children have lost their lives to abortion in Franklin County.

In 2009 alone, 5,581 pre-born children were lost to abortion. If abortions continue at the rate they did in 2009,

- Before you go to bed this evening, 15 pre-born children will have lost their lives. . .
- In the next 7 days, 107 pre-born children will have died. . .
- In the next month, 465 preborn children will be terminated. . .

. . . right here in Franklin County.

When will the bloodshed end?
