BloodMoney: The Business of Abortion

Greater Columbus Right to Life Hosts Documentary Film About Abortion Industry

Columbus, OH, July 26, 2010. Greater Columbus Right to Life (GCRTL) is hosting the documentary film "BloodMoney: The Business of Abortion" at the Arena Grand Movie Theater. The documentary will be screened for three showings only – August 2, 3 and 4, at 6:30 p.m. each night. Event registration is $8.00 for any of the three screenings.

BloodMoney is a documentary film that exposes the truth behind the Abortion Industry from the Pro Life perspective.

This film will examine the history of abortion in America, from the inception of Planned Parenthood and the profitability of abortion clinics, to Roe v. Wade, to the denial of when life begins, to the fight to save the lives of pre-born children, and the devastating effects it has had on the women that have had them.

"BloodMoney: This Business of Abortion is shocking. The film includes interviews with former abortion providers, former leaders of the pro-choice movement, and women who have experienced abortion. The stories are their own, which is why this film is so powerful." said Ruth Yorston, GCRTL Executive Director.

Information about the documentary and a preview of the film can be seen at www.BloodMoneyColumbus.weebly.com.

Greater Columbus Right to Life is a local pro-life education and advocacy organization. The mission of GCRTL is to promote a community that protects innocent human life from conception until natural death.
