"I stand one hundred percent with the efforts of Created Equal, with getting the truth visually out to students on campuses and inspiring them and equipping them to have the debate with fellow students."

— Lila Rose, President, Live Action

"Seth Drayer is a stellar example of what a pro-life apologist should look like. He's persuasive with his content, engaging with his listeners, and gracious to his critics."

— Scott Klusendorf, President, Life Training Institute

"Created Equal's presentation was engaging, informative, and practical. Even our most critical faculty member gave them a thumbs up!"

— Father Bernard Ezaki, Bethlehem Catholic High School

"Today I had a discussion with a new friend of mine about abortion . . . I've never been in a controversial argument or discussion where I felt that confident."

— 17 year old female trained by Created Equal

"In all my years and throughout many seminars, I have never been given the scientific facts as explicitly as you presented them. It was insightful for me!"

— Linda Basso, Pius X High School

Seth Drayer equips high school and college students to simplify the abortion debate and make a compelling case that can compete in the marketplace of ideas. Seth is Created Equal's Director of Training.

Jami Beer led a team exposing visually the injustice of abortion on her own campus before her position as Created Equal's Director of Campus Outreach. Jami helps students go to the next level of activism.
